Hollis Taggart is pleased to announce that the Hamptons Fine Art Fair is honoring Audrey Flack with a lifetime achievement award and a solo booth presentation.

New York-based gallery Hollis Taggart will present Last Woman Standing a solo presentation of work by acclaimed nonagenarian artist Audrey Flack, spanning from her early days as an abstract expressionist, to the becoming the only women pioneer in the groundbreaking Photorealism movement; Flack's creative juices have never ceased to flow.

In the presentation, a selection of Flack's rare classic Abstract Expressionist works will be shown along with important figurative transitional works that provide a unique insight into the bridge between Abstract Expressionism and Photorealism.
